Mrs Wallis' last day at Heamoor School

Last Friday was Mrs. Wallis' last day at Heamoor School and to celebrate the time Mrs Wallis has been here the whole school came together for 'High Tea'. The children all enjoyed some delicious cakes and shared some special memories they had written from the time they remembered spending in Mrs. Wallis' class. Mrs Wallis has been a part of the team at Heamoor for the past 20 years and will be sorely missed by everyone. However, we are sure you will join us in wishing Mrs. Wallis good luck in her new position as the manager at Willows Educare.

The children all had a wonderful time on Monday morning when they were treated to a performance of Cinderella by theatre company M&M Productions.

Yellow Class Cake Sale

Yellow Class will be holding a Cake Sale in the playground after school on Wednesday 6th December.

The children have been learning all about Antarctica and how to survive in the environment there this term and will be raising money for the charity ShelterBox.

If any one would like to send in any cake donations Yellow Class would really appreciate it.

Come along and enjoy a yummy treat, all of the cakes will be 50p.

Hockey Tournament

Well done to all of the children from KS2 who took part in the inter-schools hockey tournament last week.

The whole team, who were captained expertly by Will Cook from Violet Class, played brilliantly in their first games of the season.

The scores were:

Heamoor v Marazion 1-1 goal from Kia M

Heamoor v Alverton 1-2 goal from Isaac D

Indigo Class: A Viking Story

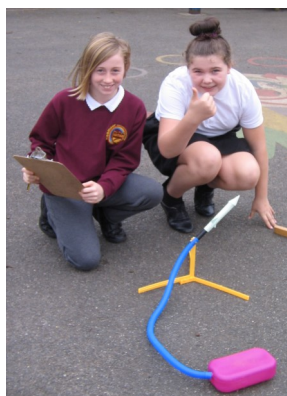

As their end of term project finale the Children from Indigo Class will be hosting a Viking event at Penlee house from 10am - 12noon on Tuesday 5th December.

They will be sharing stories of Norse mythology, selling their Viking jewellery and sharing Viking stew, all in traditional Viking costume!

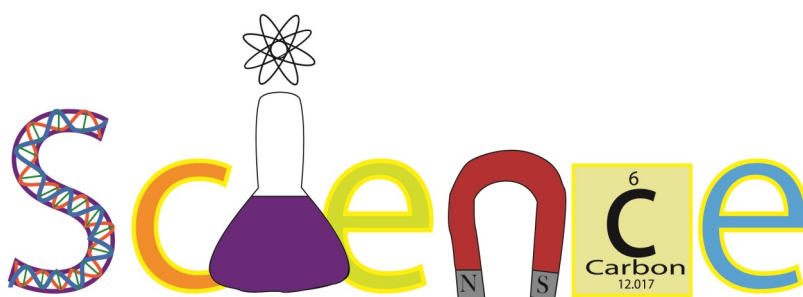

The money they raise from the sales of their artefacts will be donated to Penlee House so that others may indulge in the value of learning history through the arts.

PENLEE HOUSE

Gallery & Museum

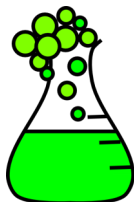

Wow! We have been Super Scientists at Heamoor School.

All week, the children have been focusing on Chemistry with melting chocolate, toasting marshmallows, changing state as well as reversible and (tasty) irreversible changes.

Red Class have been experimenting with corn flour and Orange Class have enjoyed discussing changing state with M and M rainbows. Yellow Class have been amazingly creative with their scientific drawings based on the properties of everyday materials. Green Class have been looking at their scientific language and planning investigations. Blue Class have discussed 'fair tests' and designed their own experiments all week! Indigo Class have tested their material packaging for a stew fit for a Viking and Violet Class have been focusing on working scientifically by testing variable design changes.

Phew! What a week of busy scientists.

Thank you to everyone (staff and children) for making this Science Week amazing!
