Yellow Class - Woodland Survival Day

To end their Autumn Term project 'Can We Survive Scott's Antarctic Adventure?' the staff and children from Yellow Class donned their coats, hats and welly boots and ventured outside for a day of 'Survival' in the school woodlands.

The children were given the opportunity to play and explore the woodland area; gathering sticks and leaves to build shelters. They were also treated to yummy hot chocolate and had the opportunity to toast marshmallows over an open fire in the school fire pit. Everyone had a great time and the children learnt all about being real explorers!

The children have raised over £200.00 during this project - all of which will be donated to ShelterBox.

Violet Class visit Royal Cornwall Museum

Violet Class spent last Thursday in role as WW2 evacuees.

They spent the morning at Royal Cornwall Museum in a 1940s classroom complete with blackboard, chalk and wireless (yes, the radio, not superfast fibre!)

Much dressing up and role playing fun was had by all!

Indigo Class - Exhibition at Penlee House

This week Indigo Class held their final project event in The Coach House at Penlee House Gallery.

The children were delighted by the volume of people who came to see all of the items they had produced, including family and members of the general public.

Indigo Class shared their knowledge of all things 'Viking', sold their jewellery and have raised £145 for Penlee House so far.

It is fair to say that they really can 'Tell A Viking Tale'!

Heamoor Christmas Productions

Well done to all the children who took part in the EYFS Nativity Production and the whole school Nativity Production 'Lights, Camel and Action' this week. Another great turnout from parents, all showing their support for the hard work the children had put into their performances.

Well done to all the staff involved this year and special thanks to Miss Shelley for her amazing organisation of the whole event.

Thank you for your generous collection donations, we raised over £200. All of the monies raised will be used to purchase new playground equipment to use during break and lunch times.

Blue Class Blood Drive Donations

Blue Class ended their project this term by baking cookies for the kind blood donors at Penzance Leisure Centre on Tuesday 28th November.

They baked the cookies in school then took them to the drive - with some special sweets for Vegan donors too!

The children had the chance to see how donation works, as well as an opportunity to look at the medical apparatus used for collecting blood.

As usual, Blue Class were impeccably behaved and everyone was delighted with their baking.

Well done Blue Class!

There will be a family Christingle Service at St. Thomas Church in Heamoor on Christmas Eve.

The service will take place at 4:00pm.

School Dinners

Can parents please ensure that they send their children to school with their lunch money to avoid accumulating large bills.
