School Council Elections

Last week students took part in the annual 'School Elections' to vote for who they wanted to be this year's School Councillors. There were lots of nominees who all wrote some fabulous manifestos. We were lucky enough to have Derek Thomas in school for Monday's assembly to present the lucky candidate's with their certificates and

New Playground Equipment

The playground at Heamoor School was given a bit of a make over last week thanks to some amazing new play equipment. The children (and staff!) have all had lots of fun outside exploring, swinging and climbing on the new Crows Nest Swing and Trim Trail. Thank you to Penwith PE Network for part funding this project.
