'The Start of a Journey'

Look at the image of the turtle on the next page and read the story starter. Can you continue it?

The Start of a Journey:

She blinked her sleepy eyes and looked at the world around her. She pushed her back legs against the shell and broke away another piece. Soon she would be free. Soon she would have to face a big challenge. It wasn't going to be easy. Her epic journey was only just beginning...

Can you write a story about the turtle's first day?
Remember to include a beginning, a middle (with a problem) and an ending (solving the problem).
Will your ending be happy, sad, or a cliff hanger?
