WELCOME RED CLASS!

After a very successful transition we warmly welcome the children of Red Class and their families to our school. They have had an exciting few days with Mrs. Trenerry and her hard work over the holidays has provided them with a space we feel exceptionally proud of. We look forward to seeing them flourish during their first year at Heamoor. Well done!

RED CLASS REMINDER

Please remember to bring your forms back to either the office or Mrs Trenerry. We still have many outstanding and cannot share any photos until we have parent preferences on this.

Imitation you are ready to learn from others, notice the approach and detail of how others do things

HEAMOOR ENTERPRISE CLUB

The newly formed Enterprise Club will be having a flapjack sale next Friday 27th September after school. They have planned this themselves so please bring 50p and support them in their initiative to raise more school funds.

TATE ST IVES

Blue class had a great trip to the Barbara Hepworth exhibition at the Tate St Ives. They will be looking at her work over the next few weeks.

Well Done Daisy!

Well done to Daisy in Orange class who held a coffee morning to raise money for Macmillan at the weekend. Daisy raised over £105! We are really proud of her and orange class were very grateful for the cakes left over.

WORLD'S BIGGEST COFFEE MORNING

TASTER SESSION

It was great to see so many parents and children at our Autumn term taster session. This is a great way of Mrs Halliday and her team showcasing the fantastic food which we provide for your children. In a recent survey the children spoke very highly of their lunchtime experience, and we value your input into our school kitchen.

ROALD DAHL

Friday 13th September 2019

Roald Dahl day was a great success! Children from years 1-6 dressed up as well loved characters in a day where we celebrated the works of such an

Trengwainton Lantern Walk

Indigo class have been asked to make lanterns for this year's Lantern Walk at Trengwainton gardens. This will take place on Friday 6th and Saturday 7th December 2019. As this is hugely popular we have been asked to give you advance notice of when the tickets go on sale as they're likely to sell out even more quickly than they did last year.

Tickets for admission to the Lantern Walk and visits to Father Christmas go on sale from

01 October 2019 on their website:

www.nationaltrust.org.uk/trengwainton

Minibus Help!

We are looking for more volunteers to drive our school minibus. If anyone is interested in volunteering for trips and sports fixtures then please speak to Mrs Nicholls in the office and she will happily take your contact details. (training will be provided) We would be very grateful for your support!

Friends of Heamoor School

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

We currently have 2 parents who regularly help us with the 'Friends of Heamoor School.' If you are interested in joining our friendly team please see Miss Cocks. We are in the process of planning a Halloween Disco and will need more support if this is to go ahead. Remember all the money raised goes to resources for your children!

LEGO APPEAL

We have had an amazing response to Lego Club and the children have enjoyed making their own wonderful creations this week!

With such a high level of interest, we would LOVE it if anyone has any spare Lego they would be willing to donate to the school!

A few bricks, any size Lego tyres, a base plate... we would greatly appreciate ANY spare Lego for our new club!

Thank you !
