

Tuesday 23rd June 2020 - EXAMPLE Plan for the Day

Read for ten minutes and practise common exception words!

I am going to go over phase 5 for consolidation. It is important that we keep re-visiting the sounds the children have learnt so far. Today we will be re-visiting 'air.' I have recorded the sounding and blending part of a phonics session that I did with the children in school. Please sound and blend the words and have a go at writing each word.

Today I would like you to think of some adjectives to describe the girl in the film. Think about what her personality might be like as well as what you can see. You can use the template below to help you. Think of as many adjectives as you can for each section. We will be using these tomorrow.
