Today, we're going to recap using speech punctuation. Things to remember:

Inverted commas 'trap' all the words being spoken.

Capital letter at the start of every speech sentence.

The Sneaky Comma (or ! or ?).

Imagine what might be happening in the scene below.

Write speech sentences to show what each of the characters might be saying.

Check the 'things to remember'. Do your sentences have these things?

Try to use different words for 'said' to make your sentences more interesting.
