We asked our children, parents, teachers and governors what they thought made Science great!

These are our principles for teaching Science at Heamoor Community Primary School.

Science works best when:

- Children can ask questions, explore, experiment and discover new things for themselves!

- It is fun and exciting!

- We work together so everyone can learn.

- It relates to the real world.

- We can explain our learning in lots of ways!