

Thursday 2nd July 2020 - EXAMPLE Plan for the Day

Read for ten minutes and practise common exception words!

Phonics- Today I would like you do go through all of the sounds we have learnt this week - re-capping them is key to remembering them! (You can also look at the sounds from last week.)

Choose a game on phonicsplay.co.uk

This week we will be fixing sentences. Each day you will have a sentence to fix about a character from a book. Can you add adjectives/similes to improve my sentence?

Maths is White Rose - This is already downloaded on the maths page with the videos.

Writing- This week and next week we will be basing our learning on the Talk for Write text 'Brian Bear's Picnic'

Please follow the link on the writing page to download this. There is no need to print this off unless you wish to. Most of the activities can be done on a piece of paper or in your books.

Today I would like you to draw a map and retell the story using the prompts on page 9.

D&T:

Plan a teddy bears picnic! Think about the time and place you would have it and the games you could play. What would the celebration be? What would you eat? Who would you invite? Use a plain piece of paper to plan it out.

Bit of fun! - Have a go at soap carving following the link on the wider curriculum page.

Listen to our poem a day on the poetry page!
