Reading Raffle

Dear Parents/Carers,

As you know, Reading Karate is an incentive we use in school to encourage engagement with reading for pleasure at home. This year it has been disrupted by our most recent lockdown, which will make it impossible for children to complete the challenge successfully. We have therefore taken the decision to relaunch this in September, when the children move into their new school year.

We have however come up with an alternative incentive, which we hope will engage children in a similar way. Children in EYFS and KSI will be given the opportunity to be entered into a 'Reading Raffle' each week. All they need to do to earn a raffle ticket is read 5 times a week at home with an adult. Please continue to write comments in their reading diaries to enable them to receive their entry. Each week the class teacher will draw a winner who will receive a prize!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your ongoing support with reading at home; it really does make a huge difference.

Yours Sincerely,

Miss Cocks
