

Tuesday 2nd February 2021

Sick sentences.

Can you spot all of the mistakes in each sentence? You're the teacher – make the corrections!

- 1) the lighthous keepers study was an organised chaos. although it appeared untidy everything had its place.
- 2) Anxious thoughts darted through his mind as he climbed the spiral staircase to the machine room to look at the damaged contents.
- 3) Inside the pubs walls concerned villagers began to gather lanterns. Without the familiar constant turning of light from the lighthouse its comfort had rapidly vanished.
- 4) The lighthous keepers glasses balanced on the bridge of his nose as he stared through them, sick with worry.
- 5) Across the town the villagers cheers suddenly stopped.
- 6) in the hope of changing the ships course villagers huddled together, holding lanterns up high

