Read the Coral Reefs story in 'Topical Tuesdays' on the Heamoor School website. Hold the debate with a member of your family.	Write a detailed, vivid description of a healthy coral reef, using either the pictures from the article or images you have found elsewhere. Use as many descriptive techniques as you can, including extended noun phrases and figurative language such as similes and metaphors.	Create a piece of art inspired by images of a coral reef.	Make a coral reef sculpture using household objects. Have a look online for inspiration and ideas.	Most people have heard of the Great Barrier Reef off the north east coast of Australia but there are many other reefs around the world. Research one of these and write a fact file about it, stating where and how big it is, and describing some of the wildlife that inhabits it.
Read two more books from 'myON' (find the link on the Heamoor School website).	Use the following link to find The Summoner in the 'Once Upon a Picture' section. https://www.heamoor.school.co.uk/website/reading_writing/459044 Use the prompts to create a piece of writing based on the picture.	Create pictures of different flowers using paints or pencils, looking closely. You could also try using collage, cutting paper from magazines or leaflets to create the petals.	Make your own puppet show! Can you write a script for the puppets you have made?	Use the Garden Flowers Identification Chart using the link below to name flowers that are in your garden. If you do not have a garden, you could observe them from your window or whilst out on a walk. https://www.heamoor.school.co.uk/website/science/463157

This could be making a bug hotel, planting flowers to attract bees, butterflies and other insects or adding a bird bath and/or bird feeders to attract birds. Think about what animals might need to attract them to the habitat you create.	Find out more about different bird and animal species that visit British gardens and create a fact file giving information about their habitat, where they live, food, and how they move.
Listen to 'The Girl of Ink and Stars' from the audiobook section on the Indigo class page of the website.	Imagine you were Isabella from 'The Girl of Ink and Stars.' Write a diary about what has happened to you so far.	Search for the book cover for 'The Girl of Ink and Stars.' Use the original one as inspiration to draw your own silhouette picture. It could be a silhouette of yourself or a member of your family.	Create a map of Joya from 'The Girl of Ink and Stars.' Include things from the story e.g. Gromera; The Forgotten Territories; but also ideas from your own imagination.	Find out about other books written by Kiran Millwood Hargrave. What similarities do you think there are between these books and 'The Girl of Ink and Stars'?
