

Wednesday 17th June 2020 - EXAMPLE Plan for the Day

Read for ten minutes

This week we are going to look at alternative spellings for the same sound. Today there is an activity on the phonics page for the sounds: oa, oe, ow and o-e. (The answers are there for you too!)

This week we will be looking at adjectives. On the 'Writing support Page', you will have a sentence a day. Can you make my sentence more interesting by adding a juicy adjective?

Maths is White Rose - This is already downloaded on the maths page with the videos.

Writing- This week we will be basing our learning on a short animation called 'A Cloudy Lesson'

Please follow the link to watch this on the writing page.

Today and tomorrow you will be writing a diary entry in role as the boy in a cloudy lesson. You will be retelling the day's events including thinking about the thoughts and feelings of the character. You can use the example from yesterday to help you (even magpie ideas and sentences) and the template below to help you structure your writing.

Wider Curriculum:

Follow the link to the RNLI page. Can you complete the Water Safety Passport?

Listen to chapter 3 of our class story 'The Owl Whose Afraid of the Dark' By Jill Tomlinson.

Dear Diary,

What an amazing day! This morning _____
